

DR. SEWA RAM

An alumnus of IIT Delhi for his B.Tech (Civil Engineering) and SPA Delhi for M.Planning (Transport) and Ph.D., Dr.SewaRam is at present Professor and Head in the department of Transport Planning , School of Planning and Architecture, Delhi.He has experience of more than 27 years. As Transportation Engineer in CIDCO Navi Mumbai,he contributed to the planning and design of the then new city. Dr. Ram's areas of interest include Traffic and Transport Engineering, Transport Design, Transport infrastructure, Planning and design of sustainable Transport System,Transport Technology,Mobility solutions and universal accessibility, Transport –Environment relation and Safety.He has been actively involved in formulation of several Indian Road Congress codes/guidelines,has several International and National research publications and presentations.He was a member of the international draft committee of formulation of combined resolution of United Nations Centre for Regional Development(UNCRD).He has also been involved in several committees of the MoUD of the Govt. of India, among them a member of Technical Core Group of TCPO on the formulation of Urban Regional Development Plan (URDPFI) Guidelines.Dr. Ram is a key member of Indo- Highway Capacity Manual.