

WEBINAR SERIES

ROAD SAFETY CHALLENGES IN INDIA AND PREPARATION OF AN ACTION PLAN

7th Webinar : Intelligent Transport System (ITS) for Road Safety

Wednesday 28th July 2021 at 16:30 – 18:45 hrs (IST)

Dr. P. K. Sarkar

Former Professor SPA, New Delhi

Application of ITS Technologies for Safety of Vulnerable Road Users

Professor P K Sarkar is presently a visiting faculty engaged in teaching, research and consulting work in the area of Transport Planning at various institutes in the country. He has been actively involved as an expert on various consulting projects in areas of Transport Engineering, Planning, Economics, Road Safety, and ITS. Presently he is an active member of various technical committees at national and international level such as NICDC, BIS, IRC and ISO.

He has four books to his credit on Transport Planning, Transport Economics and Intelligent Transport System and Sustainable Transport System. He was deputed to University of Mauritius for academic work as a part of UGC Faculty Exchange Programme in 2009 and was also Commonwealth Academic Fellow at University of Newcastle, UK in 2013. He has received a number of awards for his outstanding contributions in the profession.