

Padmashri Dr. Subroto Das, EMS Expert

Managing Trustee & CEO

Lifeline Foundation

A Baroda Medical College alumnus, Dr. Das has been formally trained in Health Management and Industrial Medicine. He has the broad vision for a unified EMS in the sub-continent for which he has been actively campaigning, making EMS a fundamental right for citizens in India, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh and Nepal. A Padmashri Awardee, Dr. Subroto Das conceptualized the first EMS in the country over large geographical areas taking his work across the sub-continent, for which he has been honoured globally with an Eisenhower Fellowship and the Asian EMS Award for Lifetime Achievement and he was elected as an Ashoka Fellow in 2004.
