

Prof. Manoranjan Parida

Director
CSIR-CRRI

Prof. Manoranjan Parida is presently Director, CSIR-Central Road Research Institute, New Delhi and previously he was the Deputy Director at IIT Roorkee. He has been MoRTH Chair Professor on Development of Highway System in India at IIT Roorkee during 2013-2017. He has provided substantial inputs for third party quality audit of 1700 km. of State Highway in the State of Bihar (during 2007-2013) under the RSVY Project. He has provided consultancy for more than 350 urban road infrastructure projects, intercity corridors, rural roads, and expressways. He received Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru Birth Centenary Award in the year 2004 from Indian Road Congress. He has received the Outstanding Teacher Award of IIT Roorkee. He is presently an Independent Director on the Board of Jharkhand Urban Infrastructure Development Company Ltd., Convener of Urban Roads & Streets Committee (H-8), Indian Roads Congress, New Delhi and Vice President of Indian Roads Congress.