

VENKATA SUBBA RAO CHUNDURU

Director and Head, India Operations, IBI Group

Mr. Venkata Chunduru, Director and Head, India Operations is graduated from Indian Institute of Technology, Mumbai India with Master's degree in Transportation Systems Engineering. With over 22 years of experience, he is specialised in Infrastructure Project Appraisal, Travel Demand Modeling, Design Implementation and Operations & Maintenance of Intelligent Transportation Systems across Highways / Toll Roads, Airports, Ports, Public Transit/Rail and Urban Transport projects. He has been part of projects implemented via public financing and PPP/P3 basis. He has also led Joint Venture Teams and worked on multi-lateral bank funded projects. A number of these projects have been nominated for and received awards.

A Certified Independent Director by Institute of Corporate Affairs and member of professional bodies including Institute of Urban Transport India, Institute of Engineers India and Institute of Transportation Engineers USA. He is also part of Technical Committee on Transport Planning and Traffic Engineering (H1 Committee) and Multi Modal Integration (G6 Committee) of Indian Road Congress an apex technical body which develops standards and guidelines for development of urban and rural transportation systems in India. He is also part of the Urban Infrastructure Committee of CII Confederation of Indian Industry a 125-Year-old industry body of India.