

Vijay Choudhary is a professional in the field of urban planning, currently serving as a Senior Traffic Engineer at SmartUrbs. Holding a Master's degree in Transport Planning from SPA Delhi.

Entrepreneur at heart, Vijay's professional mission to find innovative solutions in the field of Road Improvement and Safety. His passion is channeled towards the creation of safe and highly efficient smart junction crossings, driven by a vision for urban areas that are well-connected, accessible, smarter, more efficient, and ultimately better places to live.