

IRF – IC's 12th Lecture

Research & Developments in Autonomous Vehicle Technologies in India

Their Potential in Road Safety and Implementability

Dr. A. Mohan Rao
Chief Scientist & Head (ESD)
Central Road Research Institute

Dr. Mohan Rao is Chief Scientist at Traffic Engineering and Safety Division, Central Road Research Institute, New Delhi. He is also Head of Engineering Services Division of CRRI as well as the Head of Computer Centre at CRRI. Dr. Mohan Rao has worked as Project Leader/Principle Investigator/ Team Member in about 100 major Sponsored Projects of the Institute. He was key task leader in "Development and Application of Technologies for Sustainable Transportation (SUSTRANS)", and also "Development of Indian Highway Capacity Manual (Indo-HCM)", and several others. Recipient of awards for many innovative technologies including the one for "Driver Eye Movements and Visual Behaviour Analysis". He is a prolific researcher with large number of publications in referred journals and also author of many book chapters. He is also guiding Ph.D. and M.Tech. students of AcSIR- CRRI.

Friday, 14th November 2025 | 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM

